

(questions proposed to Mr. Wm. H. Eger) 105.630 10/14/26

Did you go home? ^{not immediately} If not, where did you go? to Mr Stevens' home

Did you go to Henry Stevens' home? ^{yes} If so, did he accompany you? no
he left the beach a head of me, as I believe he wanted to clean some fish
Do you remember the exact time that he reached his home? no; but judge around 9.30

How long a time did you spend in his company? until about 10.20

What did Mr. Stevens and you do while together after leaving the beach? Drank a glass of ginger ale, and smoked and talked

If you talked, what was the subject of discussion? fish

Do you remember anything about the Applegate blue fish incident?
Heard the conversation regarding it; but did not see it.

What time did you leave Mr. Stevens? About 10.20

Where did you leave him? on the west porch of his house

What was he doing at the time? yawning, and said he was sleepy
and was getting ready to go to bed

Did you go directly to your home? yes

What time did you reach your home? 10.25

Where was your home at this time and how long did it take you to get from Stevens home to your own? On the next Ave (Camden Ave) which takes only 5 minutes time

* How do you recall the day of the 14th of September 1922? Is there anything particular that fixes that time and the events of the evening in your memory? - thought nothing about it until the newspapers began linking Mr. S. name, when I decided to write; knew then I was not him, and it could not be possible for him to have any connection with the crime.
How did Mr. Stevens appear that night? Was he at all excited, nervous, or quiet as usual? Just normal - in good humor See separate sheet